

Head Riding Instructor - Jennifer D. Stoudemire updated 9/05/15

Jennifer has been an avid horse person from the start. She started with formal Hunt Seat lessons at age five and started competing at age six. At age fourteen Jennifer entered the world of Dressage and actively competed in Dressage for seven years.

Then went western and took up reining, which was not as fulfilling for her as Dressage. She is back in the Dressage world. She currently owns a Friesian Sport horse and trains in the art of Dressage. Jennifer and her Friesian Sport horse "Wieger's Royal Prince" won the South Carolina Dressage and Combined Training First Level professionals division for 2011. In spring of 2015 Jennifer earned her final score at Third Level needed to qualify for her United States Dressage Federation Bronze medal rider award. Jennifer is a past member of the University of South Carolina Varsity Equestrian Team. Competing in Hunt Seat, Western Pleasure and Reining divisions at the Open level. She graduated from the University of South Carolina with a BA in Sociology. She has been teaching riding lessons and training horses for over 20 years. Jennifer is a registered certified riding instructor with the Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International and a certified Special Olympics Equestrian Coach. She gives riding lessons in Dressage and is the Director & Head Riding Instructor for Dream Riders therapeutic horseback riding program.

Jennifer's Certifications

- PATH International Registered Certified Riding Instructor
- Advanced Level Equestrian Instructor Certification through Horsemanship Safety Association
- Certified Special Olympics Equestrian Sport Coach
- Graduate of Horsemasters